How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the most distressing and painful periods. It's the only medicine that gives relief from the "cramps" of the "time" to come.

1. Takes like a tonic, it builds up the system, it stimulates the appetite, it gives relief from the "cramps" of the "time" to come.

2. Shuts down the "time" to come, it stops the pain due to purely functional periodic pain. Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you got it.

Want to Live Long? Don't Be President

WASHINGTON—Does the job of President of the United States shorten life?

It seldom did when America was essentially an agricultural economy of a few million population, a Metropolitan Life Insurance analysis disclosed.

But since 1900, only one—William Howard Taft—lived the number of years he could expect to under normal circumstances.

Franklin D. Roosevelt had a life expectancy of 71. He died at 63. Calvin Coolidge fell 12 years short; Harding, 16; Wilson, 5; Theodore Roosevelt, 1; McKinley, 12; Harrison, 5; and Cleveland, 1.

Herbert Hoover, the only living ex-president, has a life expectancy of 72 and has almost reached that mark.

Forest View

Forest View, Jan. 13.—Many of our farmers are putting their tobacco on the market while prices are good.

The Tucker family has had as their visitors Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Marshall, Dorothy and Jimmie, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hudson and Rev. and Mrs. Blanks.

Mrs. N. D. Marshall was notified of the extreme illness of her brother, Henry White, of Richmond, last Monday. She left Tuesday for Richmond, where she will stay for a while. She found him somewhat better.

News has been received of the death of Mr. Billy Marshall in California. Mr. Marshall was born and reared in Appomattox County, the son of the late Robert and Feta Marshall. He leaves two brothers, E. H. Marshall, of Lynchburg, three sisters, Mrs. Bernice Pugh and Mrs. Gladys Pugh of Charlotte County, and Mrs. Lizzie Kauffman.

Our sympathy is extended to the bereaved family in their sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Marshall, of Lynchburg, spent the week-end at the home of J. A. Martin Sunday P. M.

Mrs. Everett Ferguson spent last Tuesday with Mrs. A. D. Marshall.

Mrs. A. D. Marshall expects to spend today in Lynchburg.

We are glad two school buses are going out of this neighborhood to Appomattox school, as there were too many children for one bus.

Your correspondent knew Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Smith so well. Great characters have passed on. And we want to extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.

We wish for Mrs. Ola Patteson a speedy recovery.
